WILD  APPLE

Coastal art is always popular. There is something so magical about a day by the shore. Our artists are painting powerful seascapes that capture the majesty of the ocean. Look for coastal collections of water and waves to adorn walls everywhere.

TREND BOARD: CATCH A WAVE

designed by: WILD APPLE GRAPHICS

high tide

We've seen coastal-inspired interiors go through so many changes over the years, but this season may be one of our favorites. We're gushing over deep ocean hues of lapis, indigo and aqua. Combine stunning seascapes with typography collections to create spaces that feel vacation-ready.

shades of blue

"We all have one idea of what the color blue is, but pressed to describe it specifically, there are so many ways: the ocean, lapis lazuli, the sky, someone's eyes. Our definitions are as different as we are ourselves."

Jess Aiken started her art career working in interior design. "As an artist I love the connection between art and the home, so moving on to designing art for the home was a natural progression." Working from her home studio in Providence, Rhode Island (known as the "Creative Capital"), Jess is inspired by the natural beauty of nearby beaches and the dynamic activity of city life. For Jess, being able to thrive and create art every day is the perfect balance. "I never take myself too seriously, and always, always have fun. I am grateful to be able to make art for a living."
