LAURA HORN

78482 JOYOUS NATURE

laura horn

Laura Horn is an Australian mixed media artist inspired by the imperfect and ever-changing beauty of nature. Part play and part meditation, her process begins with washes of watercolour, or acrylic and ink. Shapes, patterns and botanical motifs are then added using pens, pencils and pastels. Laura also helps others to connect with their creativity through her online classes, workshops and weekly podcast.

julia purinton

Artist and muralist Julia Purinton divides her time between urban Washington, DC and a small rural village in Vermont. Both places provide plenty of material for her evocative landscapes and cityscapes. Working in oils, acrylics, venetian plaster and glaze, Julia's artwork has the luminous glow and vintage romance of images by artists who influence her: William Turner, John Singer Sargent and the Brandywine River School painters. Many layers of glaze create the atmospheric moods of her landscapes. Her work is found in galleries in New England.

Silvia Vassileva pursued her love of art at the Academy of Fine Art in Bulgaria, where she earned both her bachelors and masters degrees. She spent six years painting and exhibiting her work in Japan before moving to the U.S. Silvia describes her style as very free and bold. She makes her paintings come alive by using contrast and unusual color palettes. Silvia's home studio, which she designed herself, is bright, contemporary and minimalist.

sue schlabach

Sue Schlabach lives and works in rural Vermont where she and her family are renovating an old brick house. She loves the act of making things, whether art, food, gardens, photographs or textiles. She studied painting and photography in the late 1980s, but found herself unable to get started in her twenties. A galvanizing moment came at Charleston, the English country home of painters Vanessa Bell and Duncan Grant. The house and its furnishings, all painted with simplicity and urgency, inspired her to get started and stop hesitating. She picked up a paintbrush and a camera and didn't look back. Having a daughter also pushed the making of art to the forefront. "Children make art without a critical filter," she says, "and watching that helped me turn off the critic and get to work." Sue works as a Creative Director and artist at Wild Apple. She makes art with ink, paint, paper, wood, old papers and canvas.

LYNN MACK

75570 DELIGHT

lynn mack

Lynn Mack is a contemporary still life and landscape artist from Co. Wicklow, Ireland. She loves drinking tea, exploring new lands, archaeology and painting anything that has a beautiful pattern. In 2014 she and her family moved to Adelaide in South Australia. This opened up a whole new world of light and color to her. She loves painting the vibrant fresh aqua colors in the skies and seas of Australia. And with a desert climate, grows many stunning succulents and plant life with incredible patterns. Many of her oil and acrylic paintings include the sky and sea, or tribal markings of lines and dots connecting her Irish past with her Australian present. When not painting under the watchful eye of her marmalade-colored cat Ninja, Lynn can be found exploring the local area with her husband and three teenagers. Her children are keen musicians, painters and movie buffs. Summertime is all the more adventurous and fun since they learned how to jetty-jump and boogie board.
